DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

Dacca, the 8th April 1941.

Third Forecast of the Wheat Crop of Bengal, 1940-41.

(Note.—On an average of the five years ending 1938-39, the area under wheat in Bengal has represented some 0·4 per cent. of the total area under wheat in India. The ratio of the irrigated wheat acreage to total wheat acreage in (a) British India and (b) in the territory now reported on, has, in the five years ending 1938-39, averaged (a) 44·4 and (b) 8·4, respectively.)

Character of the season.—After the issue of the Second Forecast continued drought adversely affected the growth of the crop and thus reduced the outturn for the province.

Acreage.—According to the estimates of the District Officers, the total area sown comes to 169,100 acres this year as against 177,000 and 177,100 acres respectively in the corresponding and final forecasts of last year.

Outturn.—The average provincial outturn as worked out from the district estimates is 60 per cent., as against 74 and 73 per cent. respectively in the corresponding and final forecasts of last year.

Taking the normal yield to be 9 3/5 maunds per acre, the gross yield of the crop for the province is estimated at 35,800 tons as against 46,200 tons and 45,600 tons respectively in the corresponding and final forecasts of last year.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Tarakeswar Shrine is one of the oldest religious institutions in this province, as appears from the many legends that have gathered round the Temple about its origin. It has for a long time been the devotional resort of people of even different creeds. Its endowments dating from ancient times bear testimony to its popularity and its religious importance. Since the opening of the Tarakeswar Branch of the East Indian Railway it has attracted pilgrims from various parts of India, making it almost an all-India religious institution. The offerings of the pilgrims have added considerably to its pecuniary resources which have enabled the Temple authorities to undertake the upkeep and maintenance of some charitable and educational institutions. Its potentialities for the good of the country are undoubtedly very great, and its affairs are properly managed, the surplus of the large income of the Trust Estate left after defraying the expenses of Debsheba may be available for maintaining many works of public utility. Until lately the administration of the Temple and its endowments rested entirely with the Mohunt of the Temple and the public had no control over it. As is almost invariably the case with irresponsible administration, abuses crept into the Temple management and public funds have been wantonly misappropriated and diverted to personal use, ignoring the interest of the deity, the pilgrims and the Hindu public at large. Matters came to a head during the régimé of ex-Mohunt Satish Chandra Giri, and some public spirited individuals and representative bodies and institutions prosecuted at considerable cost a suit under section 92 of the Civil Procedure Code and succeeded in removing from the Mohuntship the said Satish Chandra Giri who was found guilty of misappropriation of vast sums of money belonging to the Tarakeswar Estate, and also of gross immorality. A scheme has been framed in the said suit for the proper administration of the Trust Estate. It has, however, been found defective in many particulars as appear from the oft-recurring disputes and differences between the committee and the Mohunt necessitating constant references to the District Judge of Hooghly. Grave doubts have been entertained as to whether, after the disposal of the said case under section 92 of the Civil Procedure Code, the District Judge has got jurisdiction to interfere in the internal administration of the Temple and the Trust Estate.

In these circumstances, it is deemed necessary that the administration and governance of the Tarakeswar Temple and its endowments should be placed on a better footing by legislation providing for a Committee of Management fully representative of the Hindu public and making it responsible to the Hindu public and the Local Government and properly defining the rights and duties of the committee and the Mohunt. This is the object of the proposed legislation.

It cannot be pretended for a moment that the other temples and religious and charitable institutions of the province are on a better footing than the Tarakeswar Temple. Some are in a far worse position. The public spirit that may put section 92 of the Civil Procedure Code into operation against the management of these institutions is sadly lacking in this country. Moreover, it is a very costly affair, as the said suit in connection with the Tarakeswar Temple has shown. A comprehensive legislation affecting all the Hindu public temples and religious and charitable institutions of the province is overdue. It is Government only which can undertake such legislation, requiring as it does a detailed survey and examination of the history and customs of these institutions. Pending such legislation the chances of which are far too remote now, this Tarakeswar Temple should have a special and prompt consideration. This Bill is introduced with this end in view.

Bills introduced in the Council of State and Legislative Assembly; Reports of Select Committees presented to the Council and Assembly; and Bills published under Rule 18 of the Indian Legislative Rules.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill* was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 21st March, 1941:—

L. A. BILL No. 18 OF 1941.

A Bill to limit to a maximum of Rs. 50 per annum the amount payable in respect of any person by way of tax on professions, trades, callings or employments.

WHEREAS by section 142-A of the Government of India Act, 1935, it is provided that no Provincial law relating to taxes for the benefit of a Province, or of a municipality, district board, local board, or other local authority therein, in respect of professions, trades, callings or employments shall be invalid on the ground that it relates to a tax on income and that the total amount of such tax payable in respect of any one person shall not, after the 31st day of March, 1939, exceed Rs. 50 per annum;

AND WHEREAS it is further provided in the said section that any such tax which was in force during the financial year ending with the 31st day of March, 1939, may continue to be lawfully levied at a rate higher than Rs. 50 per annum unless provision to the contrary is made by the Federal Legislature;

*The Governor General has been pleased to accord the previous sanction required by the Government of India Act, 1935, and by sub-section (2) of section 67 of the Government of India Act, as saved from repeal by paragraph 12 of the Government of India (Commencement and Transitory Provisions) Order, 1936, to the introduction in the Legislative Assembly of this Bill.

AND WHEREAS it is expedient that provision shall be made whereby the total amount payable in respect of any such person by way of such tax shall not exceed Rs. 50 per annum;

Now it is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act shall be called the Professions Tax Limitation Act, 1941.

(2) It extends to the whole of British India.

(3) It shall come into force on the 1st day of April, 1941.

Limitation of tax.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of any law for the time being in force, any taxes, duties, cesses, or fees payable in respect of any one person to a Province, or to any one municipality, district board, local board or other local authority in any Province, by way of tax on professions, trades, callings or employments, shall from and after the commencement of this Act cease to be levied to the extent to which such taxes, duties, cesses or fees exceed Rs. 50 per annum.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

By section 142-A of the Government of India Act, 1935, which was inserted in that Act by the India and Burma (Miscellaneous Amendments) Act, 1940, Parliament's intentions regarding item 46 (Taxes on professions, trades, callings and employments) in the Provincial Legislative List in Schedule VII of the Government of India Act, 1935, are clarified. The new section, while continuing the right of Provinces to impose a tax on professions, trades, callings and employments limits the incidence of that tax in respect of any one person to a maximum of Rs. 50 per annum save in the case of those Provinces in which a tax on professions, trades, callings and employments was levied at a higher rate prior to 31st March, 1939. In such cases exemption is granted from the operation of the limit of Rs. 50.

The result of this is therefore that, whereas in most Provinces taxes on professions, trades, callings and employments are limited to the maximum of Rs. 50 per annum in respect of any one person, in the Madras Presidency the maximum rate is as high as Rs. 1,000 per annum in the city of Madras and Rs. 550 per annum in the districts outside the city. There may be other Provinces in which, by the proviso to sub-section (2) of section 142-A of the Government of India Act, 1935, the maximum of Rs. 50 per annum does not apply.

There is a widespread demand in the Madras Presidency that the profession tax, which is levied by municipalities and local boards under Provincial legislation, and is based solely on income, should be subject to the maximum of Rs. 50 per annum. This Bill seeks to give effect to that demand and extends the limit now laid down in sub-section (1) of section 142-A of the Government of India Act, 1935, to those Provinces in which, owing to the proviso to sub-section (2) of section 142-A the limit of Rs. 50 does not now apply. It is desirable that there should be uniformity in this matter, and this Bill seeks to establish that uniformity for all Provinces.

NOTIFICATION.

Malda.—No. 702P.H.—6th May 1941.—Under rule 7 of the Local Authorities Loans Rules, 1915, as subsequently amended, it is hereby notified for general information that the Governor intends to sanction the following application from the district board of Malda for a loan of Rs. 21,000 from Government for water-supply bearing interest at 3¾ per cent. per annum and repayable in twenty annual instalments of Rs. 1,511-3-3 each towards which Government will make a grant of Rs. 419, out of the annual grant provided in the Public Health budget for improvement of rural water-supply, unless good seasons are shown to the contrary within one month from the date of publication of this notification within the district board area.

Application from the district board of Malda for a loan of Rs. 21,000 in pursuance of the district board Resolution No. 15(ii) of a meeting of the Malda district board held on 29th August 1936 and resolution No. 1, dated 5th July 1938.

| Receipt of loan. | | | | | | | | | | | Payment of loan. | | Financial position of the district board. | | | | | | | | | | |

In addition to the details required on the reverse information should be given below under the following heads:—

(a) If the ordinary surplus is insufficient to meet the charges of the proposed loan, the particular steps which the district board has taken or has agreed to take in order to make good the dificiency.	The instalment of Rs. 1,545-3 will be met from the normal allotments on original allotments on original water-supply during the twenty years when no other work on original water-supply will be done unless the Board can provide extra fund for the same.
(b) Possible means of increase in the revenues of the district board.	It is estimated by the Director of Land Records that the cess revaluation of the district under the new Act will result in an increase in the cess receipt by about Rs. 62,369 and the district board have agreed to immediate cess revaluation which is long overdue. An increase in the income can therefore be well expected.
(c) A statement of all outstanding loans specifying in respect of each loan the date when taken, the purpose (very briefly), the amount, the annual charges involved and the amount still payable.	The first instalment of Rs. 50,000 out of the entire loan of Rs. 71,000 sanctioned for water-supply scheme was taken on the 1st August 1938 and instalment of Rs. 3,679-2 towards repayment of this loan is commencing from this year.
(d) Any explanation in regard to receipts and expenditure to show the true financial position of the district board when such position is otherwise than ordinary surplus would indicate.	1. During 1938-39 the receipt from Cess fell considerably due to a heavy and abnormal flood while expenditures on Public Health increased considerably to combat epidemic consequent upon the flood. 2. The expenditure under Civil Works increased due to partial utilisation of the loan of Rs. 50,000 granted last year on account of rural water-supply. The loan of Rs. 50,000 has been charged under "Debt, deposit and advances" and therefore not in ordinary receipt. 3. The statutory opening balance is 12½ per cent. of the Cess income which for this board comes on the average to about Rs. 22,000, whereas the actual opening balances in each of the years were much in excess of the statutory closing balance. The surpluses were used up in additional expenditures which are not of ordinary nature.

(2) Members may attend such ballot but they shall not be entitled to any mileage or daily allowance for the purpose.

(3) Members shall be entitled to determine the order of priority amongst their Resolutions or Bills in the same stage of which they have given notices by intimating in writing to the Secretary either before the holding of such ballot or before 12 noon of the working day next following the day on which such ballot is held.

(4) If no such intimation is received, priority amongst their Resolutions or Bills in the same stage shall be determined according to the date of the receipt of the notices.

(5) A list of Resolutions and Bills, in the order of priority as determined by the ballot shall be circulated to members not later than two working days after the date of the holding of such ballot.

(4) When two written requisitions have been received in respect of any one day and both are valid in accordance with the provisions of sub-rule (1) of rule 21 of the Rules, the special ballot to determine which of the Bills specified in such requisitions shall have precedence on that day shall be by drawing of lots.

Questions and Answers. (Vide Rule 30.)

5. (1) All answers to questions received, on week days by 3 p.m. and on Saturdays by 1 p.m., on the day previous to the due date specified in column 3 of the admitted list of questions, shall be printed together with the questions and shall be placed at the seat of each member in the chamber thirty minutes before the commencement of the meeting of the Council. Manner of putting Questions. (Vide Rule 32.)

6. (1) At question hour the President shall call aloud the name of the member who wishes to ask the question and the member shall forthwith rise from his seat and state the serial number of the question and immediately resume his seat. The Minister in charge of the Department to which the question relates or in his absence any other Minister with the consent of the President, may then give the answer to the question orally.

(2) A member desiring to put supplementary questions under rule 34 of the Rules shall rise from his seat. The President may then call his name when he shall put his question and immediately resume his seat. The answer to such question may then be given.

(3) If a member, who wishes to ask a question, is either absent or does not rise to state the serial number of the question in the printed list, the President shall call aloud the name of the member in whose name the next question in the list stands.

(4) If a member in whose name a question stands in the printed list is absent, any other member may ask for leave of the President to put the question and if such permission is granted, the President shall call aloud the name of that member who shall then state the number of the question and immediately resume his seat and the Minister concerned may thereafter give the answer.

(5) The answer to a question the number of which is not stated by the member due to his absence, shall be published in the proceedings, but supplementary questions arising out of such answers shall not be allowed. In cases where a member being present in the chamber declines to state the number of his question, the question with its answer printed in the list shall not form part of the proceedings of the Council.

(6) In special cases supplementary questions may be permitted, on questions standing in the names of the members who happen to be absent, on a particular day to be fixed for the purpose by the President.

(7) All published reports, documents and papers referred to by the Ministers in their replies to questions shall, unless already there, be sent by the Ministers direct to the Library of the Bengal Legislature on the day on which the replies are sent to the Legislative Council Department. Papers so sent shall be kept by the Librarian and on the prorogation of the session they shall be returned to the Administrative Department concerned.

(8) All other unpublished reports and documents referred to by the Ministers in their replies to questions shall, if such papers do not form part of the body of the replies, be placed by the Ministers on the Table at the time when replies are given by them in the chamber. A copy of such paper shall be sent to the Legislative Council Department along with the answer to the question.

(9) Whenever a Minister would like to place any papers in the Library of the Bengal Legislature in reply to a question put in the Council, copies of such papers should be sent direct to the Librarian for being kept on record in the Library for the future reference of the members.

(10) Whenever a printed document or volume is referred to in the reply to a question, such document or volume should, unless already there, be placed in the Library of the Bengal

Legislature by the Administrative Department concerned for the reference of the members.

(11) All statements or documents, which are prepared for the purpose of giving answer to a particular question and are not published documents, shall be placed on the Table in the chamber and these shall form part of the proceedings of the Council.

(12) All papers placed in the Library of the Bengal Legislature shall not form part of the proceedings of the Council though they may be referred to in reply to a question answered on any particular day.

Motions concerning privileges of the Council. [Vide Rule 37(2).]

7. Any motion of an urgent matter of privilege of the Council shall take precedence over other motions and business appearing in the Order Paper for the day.

Divisions. (Vide Rule 38.)

8. (1) There shall be two division lobbies, viz., the "Ayes" lobby and the "Noes" lobby, on either side of the Chair.

(2) Votes may be taken by voices, by asking members to rise in their seats or by asking the members to go to the division lobbies.

(3) After a question is put, the President shall ascertain the sense of the Council by voices and shall give his opinion of the result by saying either, "I think the Ayes have it" or "I think the Noes have it" as the case may be. If the opinion so expressed is not immediately challenged by any member of the Council, the President shall thereafter announce the result of the voting so ascertained.

(4) If the opinion is challenged and a division is claimed, the President shall order the lobbies to be cleared of persons not entitled to vote. The Secretary shall thereupon ring the division bell for two minutes and all the doors leading to the lobbies and the chamber shall remain open during the time the bell is ringing to enable members to come in. The tellers shall in the meantime take up their respective positions in the division lobbies.

(5) As soon as the division bell stops ringing, all the doors leading to the two lobbies from outside and the main entrance to the chamber from the lounge shall be closed so that no one from beyond the lobbies and the chamber may enter the two lobbies and the chamber and the President shall immediately put the question a second time calling the members to vote by voices and shall similarly declare either that "I think the Ayes have it" or "I think the Noes have it" as the case may be. If the opinion so declared is again challenged the President shall direct the members who are in favour of the motion to go to the "Ayes" lobby and the members who are against the motion to go to the "Noes" lobby. Members desiring to vote shall thereupon proceed to the respective lobbies and appear before the tellers to record their votes by signing their names at places allotted for the purpose on the division lists in the presence of the tellers. The members shall be allowed only three minutes to go to the lobbies from the chamber and at the expiry of the three minutes the Secretary shall order the doors leading from the chamber to the lobbies to be closed and immediately the doors shall be closed and no member shall be permitted to enter the lobbies thereafter.

(6) If, however, it comes to the knowledge of the President that any member went to a lobby and voted after the doors were so closed, the President shall exclude such vote and announce the action taken by him to the Council. From the time the division bell starts ringing to the time the President directs the members to go to the lobbies, no Minister or member shall be allowed to leave his seat and to go to any part of the chamber.

(7) If the President is satisfied that any member has been taken to the lobby for the purpose of recording his vote against his will, the vote of such member shall be expunged from the division list on which it has been so recorded.

(8) If any member enters a lobby and discovers either before or after voting that he has come to the wrong lobby, he shall immediately inform the President and the President may in his discretion allow the member's vote to be expunged from the division list of such a lobby and to be entered in the division list of the lobby in which the member desired to vote, provided that such a mistake is brought to the notice of the President before the result of the division is declared.

(9) If a member owing to infirmity or any other sufficient reasons is unable to proceed to the lobby to record his vote he shall forthwith inform the President before the result of the division is declared. On receipt of such information, the President may in his discretion, allow such a member to vote from his seat and his vote shall thereupon be recorded in the divison list in which such member desires to have it recorded.

(10) (a) After the division lists have been received from the tellers, the Secretary shall count the signatures on the respective division lists and shall hand the result of the division to the President, who shall declare the result and state the decision of the Council on the question.

(b) If the President is of opinion that a division is being frivolously claimed by a few members, he may ask the members who are claiming a division to rise in their places. The Secretary shall thereupon count the number of the members so rising and, if the number is not more than three, the President shall announce the result without asking the members to go to the lobbies.

(11) When a division is in progress, no member shall be allowed to raise any points of order except those which arise out of the division itself and any member raising such points of order shall speak sitting.

Circulation of Bills.
[Vide Rule 53(1).]

9. (1) If a motion that the Bill be circulated for the purpose of eliciting opinion is carried in the Council, the Secretary shall ask—

(i) in the case of Government Bills, the Administrative Department to which the Bill relates, and

(ii) in the case of private members' Bills—

(a) the member in charge of the Bill, and

(b) the Administrative Department to which the Bill relates, to supply the names of public bodies and associations whose opinion is desired on the Bill.

(2) In the event of the public bodies and associations, whose names are supplied as above, being numerous, the Secretary shall consult only such of them as are approved by the President in his discretion.

Quorum of Committees. (Vide Rule 56 (1).]

10. (1) In the case of a quorum of a Select Committee not being fixed by the Council, the number of members of a Select Committee whose presence shall be necessary for the purpose of forming a quorum, shall be one-third the total number of members of the Select Committee, or if the total number of members is not three or a multiple of three, then the number next higher than one-third of such number shall form a quorum.

(2) The number of members of a Committee of the whole Chamber whose presence shall be necessary to constitute a quorum shall be ten.

Expunging of portions of Proceedings. (Vide Rule 59.)

11. (1) The President may expunge any part of the proceedings of the Council or any part of the report of a Committee, which, in his opinion, refers to statements or expressions which are unparliamentary.

(2) The President may omit any portion of the report of a Committee, if in his opinion, such portion—

(i) refers to discussions which took place in the Select Committee, or

(ii) refers to any personal remarks against any member of the said Committee or any other individual.

12. Petitions shall be presented in the form prescribed in Appendix I.

13. The number of members of the Committee on Petitions whose presence shall be necessary for the purpose of forming a quorum shall be three, including the Chairman.

The procedure to be followed for taking a resolution out of its turn. [Vide Rule 94(2).]

14. (1) No member shall be permitted to sign more than one written requisition referred to in sub-rule (1) of rule 94 of the Rules.

(2) No member shall be allowed to withdraw his signature from the said requisition within 24 hours of the date fixed for the discussion of the particular resolution.

(3) If a member signs more than one requisition without withdrawing his signature from his previous requisition within the time allowed, the requisition which was first signed by him shall be treated as valid and his name shall be deemed to be withdrawn from the subsequent requisition.

(4) When two written requisitions have been received in respect of any one day and both are valid in accordance with the provisions of sub-rule (1) of rule 94 of the Rules, the special ballot to determine which of the resolutions specified in such requisitions shall have precedence on that day shall be by drawing of lots.

Motions for Adjournment for purposes of debate. (Vide Rule 99.)

15. (1) If more than one notice of a motion for adjournment of the business of the Council for the purpose of discussing a definite matter of urgent public importance is received for any particular day, such notices shall ordinarily be considered by the President seriatim, according to the date and time of their receipt, after the question hour :

Provided that the President may consider any notice out of its turn, if in his opinion it is of special importance.

(2) The President shall examine each motion for adjournment with a view to its admissibility or otherwise and as soon as a motion is found to be admissible, it will be set down for discussion at an hour to be appointed by the President. The foregoing procedure shall be followed on each succeeding meeting day till all the motions for adjournment have been disposed of by the President :

Provided in case a notice of a motion for adjournment is received before the motions referred to in paragraph (2) of this Standing Order are disposed of in the manner prescribed therein, the President may in his discretion either consider the fresh notice so received, or continue to consider the remaining motions referred to in the said paragraph and then take up other motions according to the date and time of the receipt of those notices.

Quorum of the Council. (Vide Rule 111.)

16. (1) If it appears, on notice being taken, or upon report, after a count has been made, that a quorum is not present, the President shall order the bell to be rung for two minutes. If after such interval a quorum is still not present, the President shall adjourn the Council without the question being put, until the next sitting day ; and the hour of such adjournment, as also the names of the members present, shall be printed in the proceedings of the day.

(2) Any member calling the attention of the President to the fact that a quorum is not present shall be deemed to be present during such counting, whether so present or not.

Recognition of Parties. (Vide Rule 111.)

17. Parties or Groups consisting of less than six members shall not ordinarily be recognised :

Provided that a Party or Group shall be continued to be recognised as such notwithstanding that a temporary vacancy caused by death or resignation brings the number of members of such Party or Group below six.

Despatch of notice to members. (Vide Rule 111.)

18. Every notice or other paper which is required to be given or sent to any member shall be deemed to have been so given or duly sent to such member, if a copy thereof is despatched to the address of the member as registered in the Legislative Council Department.

Election by means of the single transferable vote. (Vide Rule 111.)

19. (1) Definition. In this Standing Order :—

(i) "Council," and "Secretary" have the meanings respectively assigned to them in the Rules ;

(ii) "continuing candidates" means candidates not elected or not excluded from the poll at any given time ;

(iii) "exhausted papers" means ballot papers on which no further preference is recorded for a continuing candidate ; provided that a paper shall also be deemed to be exhausted in any case in which—

(a) the names of two or more candidates, whether continuing or not, are marked with the same figure and are next in order of preference, or

(b) the name of the candidate next in order of preference, whether continuing or not, is marked by a figure not following consecutively after some other figure on the ballot paper, or by two or more figures ;*

(iv) "first preference" means the figure 1 set opposite the name of any candidate ; "second preference" similarly means the figure 2, "third preference" the figure 3, and so on ;

(v) "original votes" in regard to any candidate means the votes derived from ballot papers on which a first preference is recorded for such candidate ;

(vi) "surplus" means the number by which the value of the votes of any candidate original and transferred, exceeds the quota as defined in paragraph (12) of this Standing Order.

(vii) "transferred votes" in regard to any candidate means votes the value or part of the value of which is credited to such candidate and which are derived from ballot papers on which a second or subsequent preference is recorded for such candidate ;

(viii) "unexhausted paper" means ballot papers on which a further preference is recorded for a continuing candidate.

(2) Proposal of candidates.—(i) The President shall appoint a period of not less than three days within which notice may be given by any member desirous of proposing a member or members for election to the Committee of Privileges under sub-rule (1) of rule 120 of the Rules.

(ii) All such notices shall be signed by the member giving notice who must satisfy himself that the members he suggests are willing to serve if elected.

(iii) If, on the expiration of the period appointed under sub-paragraph (i) the number of candidates is less than the number of vacancies to be filled, the President shall appoint a further period

*The fact that a voter has not marked every preference correctly does not invalidate the whole of his preferences. His paper is only treated as exhausted when the wrongly marked preference is reached. The following are examples :—

	A 1		A 1
	B 2		B 2
(1)	C 3	(2)	C 3
	D 3		D 5
			E 6
	E 4		F—

In case (1) the preferences for A and B would be valid. If the third preference were reached the paper would be treated as exhausted, as it would be impossible to say for which candidate the voter really intended to give his third preference. In case (2) the preferences for A, B, and C would be valid, but not the later ones, whether D had been elected or excluded or was still a continuing candidate. It is possible that the voter meant to give a fourth preference for some other candidate, e. g., F, but omitted to do so. It would not be possible to treat 5 as being meant to be 4.

within which the notice aforesaid may be given, and may thereafter appoint additional further periods until the number of candidates is not less than the number of vacancies to be filled.

(iv) If, on the expiration of the period appointed under sub-paragraph (i) or of any further period appointed under sub-paragraph (iii), the number of candidates is equal to the number of vacancies to be filled, the President shall declare all the candidates to be duly elected.

(v) If, on the expiration of any such period, the number of candidates exceeds the number of vacancies, the President shall appoint a date for the holding of an election in the manner hereinafter prescribed, and shall cause notice to be sent of the date so appointed and of the names of the candidates to all members.

(3) Voting.—(i) All members shall be entitled to vote.

(ii) No vote shall be given by proxy.

(4) The Secretary shall act as the Returning Officer, and shall, subject to this Standing Order, do all things necessary for the conduct of the election.

(5) (i) The voting shall be by ballot. The Returning Officer shall ascertain that the person desiring to vote is a member who has not already voted, and shall then tear out a ballot paper from the ballot paper book printed for the purpose leaving the corresponding counterfoil in the book, and, having initialled the ballot paper with his initials on the back thereof, shall hand it to the member. Every ballot paper shall contain the names of all the candidates for election in the form prescribed in Appendix III.

(ii) When a member has received a ballot paper, he shall take the paper to a desk provided for the purpose and signify in the manner hereinafter provided for whom he desires to vote. The member shall then fold the ballot paper so that the Returning Officer's initials thereon may be visible, and having held up the ballot paper in such manner as to enable the Returning Officer to see the initials, shall drop the ballot paper in a ballot box to be placed in front of the Returning Officer.

(iii) If a member inadvertently spoils a ballot paper, he may return it to the Returning Offier, who shall, if satisfied of such inadvertence, give him another paper and retain the spoiled paper, and this spoiled paper shall be immediately cancelled and the fact of such cancellation shall be noted upon the counterfoil.

(6) Each member shall have one vote only. A member in giving his vote—

(a) must place on his ballot paper the figure 1 in the square opposite the name of the candidate for whom he votes;

(b) may in addition place on his ballot paper the figure 2 or the figures 2 and 3, or 2, 3 and 4, and so on, in the squares opposite the names of other candidates in the order of his preference.

(7) A ballot paper shall be invalid—

(a) upon which a member signs his name or writes any word, or makes any mark by which the member may afterwards be identified; or

(b) which does not bear the Returning Officer's initials ; or

(c) on which the figure 1 is not marked ; or

(d) on which the figure 1 is set opposite the name of more than one candidate ; or

(e) on which the figure 1 and some other figure is set opposite the name of the same candidate ; or

(f) which is unmarked or void for uncertainty.

(8) Notice of date of count.—The Returning Officer shall immediately after the closing of the voting seal the ballot box in the presence of any candidates who may be present and shall appoint a date for the counting of the votes. The Returnig Officer shall give notice of the date, time and place of the counting of the voting in writing to all candidates, who shall be entitled to be present.

(9) The counting of votes.—The ballot papers shall be examined and the Returning Officer, after rejecting any invalid ballot papers, shall divide the remaining papers into parcels according to the first preferences recorded for each candidate. He shall then count the number of papers in each parcel.

(10) In carrying out this Standing Order hereinafter contained, the Returning Officer shall—

(a) disregard all fractions ;

(b) ignore all preferences recorded for candidates already elected or excluded from the poll.

(11) For the purpose of facilitating the processes prescribed by this Standing Order hereinafter contained, each valid ballot paper shall be deemed to be of the value of one hundred.

(12) The Returning Officer shall add together the values of the papers in all the parcels and divide the total by a number exceeding by one the number of vacancies to be filled and the result increased by one shall be the number sufficient to secure the return of a candidate (hereinafter called the quota).

(13) If at any time a number of candidates equal to the number of persons to be elected has obtained the quota, such candidates shall be treated as elected, and no further steps shall be taken.

(14) (i) Any candidate the value of whose parcel, on the first preferences being counted, is equal to or greater than the quota, shall be declared elected.

(ii) If the value of the papers in any such parcel is equal to the quota, the papers shall be set aside as finally dealt with.

(iii) If the value of the papers in any such parcel is greater than the quota, the surplus shall be transferred to the continuing candidates indicated on the ballot papers as next in the order of the voters' preference, in the manner prescribed in paragraph (15).

(15) (i) If and whenever as the result of any operation prescribed by this Standing Order a candidate has a surplus, that surplus shall be transferred in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph.

(ii) If more than one candidate has a surplus, the largest surplus shall be dealt with first and the others in order of magnitude :

Provided that every surplus arising on the first count of votes shall be dealt with before those arising on the second count, and so on.

(iii) Where two or more surpluses are equal, the Returning Officer shall decide, as hereinafter provided in paragraph (20) which shall first be dealt with.

(iv) (a) If the surplus of any candidate to be transferred arises from original votes only, the Returning Officer shall examine all the papers in the parcel belonging to the candidate whose surplus is to be transferred, and divide the unexhausted papers into sub-parcels according to the next preferences recorded thereon. He shall also make a separate sub-parcel of the exhausted papers.

(b) He shall ascertain the value of the papers in each sub-parcel and of all the unexhausted papers.

(c) If the value of the unexhausted papers is equal to or less than the surplus, he shall transfer all the unexhausted papers at the value at which they were received by the candidate whose surplus is being transferred.

(d) If the value of the unexhausted papers is greater than the surplus, he shall transfer the sub-parcels of unexhausted papers, and the value at which each paper shall be transferred shall be ascertained by dividing the surplus by the total number of unexhausted papers.

(v) If the surplus of any candidate to be transferred arises from transferred as well as original votes, the Returning Officer shall re-examine all the papers in the sub-parcel last transferred to the candidate, and divide the unexhausted papers into sub-parcels according to the next preferences recorded thereon. He shall thereupon deal with the sub-parcels in the same manner as is provided in the case of the sub-parcels referred to in sub-paragraph (iv).

(vi) The papers transferred to each candidate shall be added in the form of a sub-parcel to the papers already belonging to such candidate.

(vii) All papers in the parcel or sub-parcel of an elected candidate not transferred under this paragraph shall be set aside as finally dealt with.

(16) (i) If after all surpluses have been transferred, as hereinbefore directed, less than the number of candidates required has been elected, the Returning Officer shall exclude from the poll the candidate lowest on the poll and shall distribute his unexhausted papers among the continuing candidates according to the next preferences recorded thereon. Any exhausted papers shall be set aside as finally dealt with.

(ii) The papers containing original votes of an excluded candidate shall first be transferred, the transfer value of each paper being one hundred.

(iii) The papers containing transferred votes of an excluded candidate shall then be transferred in the order of the transfers in which and at the value of which he obtained them.

(iv) Each of such transfers shall be deemed to be a separate transfer.

(v) The process directed by this paragraph shall be repeated on the successive exclusions one after another of the candidates lowest on the poll until the last vacancy is filled either by the election of a candidate with the quota or as hereinafter provided.

(17) If as the result of a transfer of papers under this Standing Order the value of the votes obtained by a candidate is equal to or greater than the quota, the transfer then proceeding shall be completed, but no further papers shall be transferred to him.

(18) (i) If after the completion of any transfer under this Standing Order the value of the votes of any candidate shall be equal to or greater than the quota, he shall be declared elected.

(ii) If the value of the votes of any such candidate shall be equal to the quota, the whole of the papers on which such votes are recorded shall be set aside as finally dealt with.

(iii) If the value of the votes of any such candidate shall be greater than the quota, his surplus shall thereupon be distributed in the manner hereinbefore provided, before the exclusion of any other candidate.

(19) (i) When the number of continuing candidates is reduced to the number of vacancies remaining unfilled, the continuing candidates shall be declared elected.

(ii) When only one vacancy remains unfilled and the value of the votes of some one continuing candidate exceeds the total value of all the votes of the other continuing candidates, together with any surplus not transferred, that candidate shall be declared elected.

(iii) When only one vacancy remains unfilled and there are only two continuing candidates, and those two candidates have each the same value of votes and no surplus remains capable of transfer, one candidate shall be declared excluded under the next succeeding paragraph and the other declared elected.

(20) If, when there is more than one surplus to distribute, two or more surpluses are equal, or if at any time it becomes necessary to exclude a candidate and two or more candidates have the same value of votes and are lowest on the poll, regard shall be had to the original votes of each candidate, and the candidate for whom fewest original votes are recorded shall have his surplus first distributed, or shall be first excluded, as the case may be. If the values of their original votes are equal, the Returning Officer shall decide by lot which candidate shall have his surplus distributed or be excluded.

(b) any minor of whom he is the guardian, or
(c) any lunatic of whom he is the guardian or manager appointed by a Court of Law:

Provided that the Superintendent of a Mental Hospital may deposit money on behalf of any lunatic confined in the hospital.

(2) Save as provided in sub-rule (1), deposits on behalf of any person shall be deemed to be deposits of that person and no claim preferred by any other person on the ground that the deposits were fictitiously made in the name of the former person and that the deposits belong to the claimant, shall be entertained.

4. Limitations as to opening Accounts and Deposits.—(1) No person shall have more than one account open in his name.

(2) In addition to any account which a person may open in his own name, he may open any number of separate accounts in the names of any minors or lunatics on whose behalf he may deposit money under sub-rule (1) of rule 3, provided that not more than one account shall be opened or kept open by him on behalf of any such minor or lunatic.

(3) The fact that an account has been opened on behalf of a minor shall not prevent such minor from opening an account in his own name; nor shall the fact that a married man has an account in his own name prevent his wife from opening a separate account in her own name, provided the money to be deposited by her is her own property or earning.

(4) An individual who is a depositor in the Post Office Savings Bank may also open an account in the Indian Post Office Defence Savings Bank and may also transfer his deposits from the former to the latter by filling up the form of withdrawal and handing it over at the post office at which his account stands. If he is already a depositor in the Indian Post Office Defence Savings Bank and has his account at that post office, the amount indicated in the withdrawal form will be transferred to his account in that Bank. If he is not already a depositor in that Bank he will have to follow the procedure laid down in rule 10, in addition to that indicated above.

(5) If through any cause an account has been opened or is kept open in contravention of the provision of these Rules, the Postmaster-General may at any time cause the account to be closed, with effect from such date as may be specified by him, and the depositor shall not be entitled to interest on the account from that date. When an account is closed under this sub-rule, notice in writing will be sent to the depositor, requiring him to present his pass-book and receive payment of the balance at his credit as soon as convenient. After the date of such notice, no deposit will be accepted in the account.

5. Deposits in trust are not allowed and cannot be recognised.

6. Money cannot be deposited in the name of two or more persons jointly, or in the name of a firm or company.

7. (1) No account shall be opened with a deposit of less than two rupees.

(2) No subsequent deposit shall be less than one rupee.

(3) No deposit, whether initial or subsequent shall include a fraction of a rupee.

8. The total amount which a depositor, adult or minor, may have at his credit at any time is Rs. 10,000.

Provided that the maximum balance of Rs. 10,000 may be increased by the addition from year to year of interest calculated on the maximum limit of Rs. 10,000.

9. Powers and limitations as to withdrawals.—Save after the death of a depositor, when the provisions of rule 21 will become applicable, deposits will not be allowed to be withdrawn earlier than twelve months after the date on which the Governor-General notifies the war to have terminated.

10. How to open an account.—Any person wishing to open an account should apply to the nearest post office which transacts Savings Bank business. Application need not necessarily be made in person; but the applicant must state his name and address. If he be an Indian he must also state his father's name and caste.

11. The intending depositor must sign a declaration, in the following form. If he be unable to write, he must attend personally, and in the presence of a witness, affix his mark or seal to the declaration to be attested by the signature of the witness. If he should apply in person, a copy of these rules will be given to him to read, or they will be read and explained to him, should he be unable to read. If he should not apply in person, a copy of these rules with the form of declaration will be sent to him and he must present the declaration duly signed with the first deposit.

Form of declaration to be signed by depositor on making first deposit.

"I hereby declare that the Indian Post Office Defence Savings Bank Rules have been read by me/to me and that I accept them as binding upon me."

"I further declare that I have no Indian Post Office Defence Savings Bank account opened by me on my own behalf at any Post Office."

NOTE.—The latter sentence is to be scored through in the case of an account opened on behalf of a lunatic or minor in which case the person opening the account must make the following further declaration(s):

"I further declare that I have no Indian Post Office Defence Savings Bank account on behalf of the lunatic/minor at any Post Office, and that the minor was born on (date by Christian era as nearly as can be ascertained)."

12. When the declaration is presented, duly signed, with the amount of the first deposit, or when it has been signed by a depositor, attending in person to make a deposit, the amount of the deposit will be entered in a pass-book which will be supplied to the depositor, and the entry will be initialled by the postmaster and stamped with the office stamp. The depositor will be required to sign a receipt for the pass-book.

13. If the account be opened at a sub or branch post office, the pass-book for the deposit will have to be obtained from the head office. A preliminary receipt for the amount of the first deposit will, therefore, be given to the depositor, who will be informed of the date on which he should call to receive the pass-book. When the pass-book is handed over to the depositor, he will be required to return this preliminary receipt and to sign a receipt for the pass-book. The amount of the original deposit will be entered in the pass-book by the head office, and the depositor will, therefore, have a guarantee that the sum has been received in that office. He should be careful to see that the entry in the pass-book corresponds with the amount entered in the preliminary receipt before giving up the latter.

14. Pass-Book and its importance.—(1) The pass-book will show, in English, the number of the account, with the name of the office from which the book is issued, and the depositor's name and address. No deposit after the initial one can be made without its production, and the Post Office will not be responsible for any sum not acknowledged in the pass-book. Production of the pass-book will also be necessary at the time when withdrawal from an account is permissible. (See rule 9). Depositors should carefully examine their pass-books before leaving the office and ascertain that the entries are correct. They should also be careful to keep their pass-books in their own possession, as Government does not accept responsibility for any loss caused to a depositor, if through his negligence, any person obtains possession of the book and fraudulently obtains payment.

(2) In the case of an account opened at a sub or branch post office, the pass-book will be sent to the head office as soon as possible after the 15th June, for entry of interest. The depositor will obtain a receipt in exchange for his pass-book, and he must give up this receipt when his pass-book is returned to him at the sub or branch office.

(3) A depositor can have his pass-book sent free of charge to the post office at which the account stands for the purpose of having the interest entered or the account transferred, or in response to a call from the post office, but not for the purpose of making a deposit.

15. Loss of Pass-Book.—No charge will be made for the pass-book at first supplied to a depositor, or for any book issued to him in continuation of the original book which will be retained by the post office. But if a pass-book be lost or spoiled the depositor will have to pay one rupee for a fresh book.

Exception.—When the balance at credit of the account is less than Rs. 100 the Postmaster-General may at his discretion grant exemption from the payment of the usual fee or sanction refund of the fee already paid, provided the pass-book is lost or spoiled in circumstances over which the depositor had no control. In other cases the exemption will be granted only when the pass-book is lost or spoiled through the fault of the Post Office.

NOTE.—When a pass-book is used up and a fresh one is issued to the depositor in continuation of the original one the used-up pass-book may be returned on receipt by the Postmaster of a written application from the depositor.

16. Mode of depositing money after an account has been opened.—(1) A depositor may deposit money at the Post Office at which his account stands as often as he wishes, so long as the prescribed maximum limit of Rs. 10,000 is not exceeded. All that he is required to do is to take or send the amount to be deposited with his pass-book, to the post office. The amount of his deposit will be entered in the pass-book, and the balance struck. The entry will then be initialled by the Postmaster and stamped with the date-stamp of the office, and the pass-book will be returned to the depositor or his messenger.

(2) A depositor whose account stands at a head office may deposit money at any of the sub-offices under that head office which transact Indian Post Office Defence Savings Bank business, and a depositor whose account stands at a sub-office may deposit money at the head office of the sub-office or at any of the sub-offices of that head office which transact Indian Post Office Defence Savings Bank business. Similarly, a depositor at a Branch office may deposit money at the office to which it is subordinate and if such office is a sub-office, he may also deposit money at the head office of such sub-office. With these exceptions a depositor may deposit money only at the post office at which his account stands.

17. If the amount be deposited at a sub or branch post office, the depositor will receive in addition to the receipt in his pass-book, an acknowledgment from the head office, which will generally be the office at the headquarters station of the district. This acknowledgment will be delivered to him in ordinary course through the Post Office. If it should not reach the depositor in proper time or if, when it reaches him, it shows any signs of erasure, or does not agree with the entry in the pass-book, the depositor should immediately apply to the Postmaster of the head office, the name of which is in the pass-book, and renew his application again and again until he receives a satisfactory reply.

18. Interest.—(1) Interest will be allowed at the rate of 2½ per cent. per annum on all deposits subject to the conditions stated in this rule. Interest will be allowed for each calendar month on the lowest balance at credit of an account between the close of the fourth day and the end of the month; provided that interest shall be allowed only on sums of complete rupees, and that it shall be calculated to the nearest pie; provided further that interest shall not be allowed on any sum in excess of Rs. 10,000.

(2) Interest on accounts will cease to accrue from the date notified under rule 24 for the closure of accounts.

(3) Interest on the account of a deceased depositor will cease to accrue from the first day of the month in which notice is issued to the person or persons recognised by the Postmaster-General or the Head Postmaster as entitled to receive the balance of the account. No interest will be allowed on money deposited after his death in the account of a deceased depositor.

19. (1) Interest calculated as above for each month will be added each year to the balance of each account. Depositors should present their pass-books as soon as possible after the 15th June, in order that the necessary entries may be made in them. If the pass-book be not presented for this purpose, the entry will be made on the next occasion when it is presented.

(2) Pass-books of depositors in sub and branch Post Offices will be sent to the head office for the entry of interest under this rule.

(3) No balance will be struck in the pass-book after the 31st March until interest has been added for the past year.

(4) The Deputy Accountants-General, Posts and Telegraphs, Calcutta, Delhi, Nagpur and Madras are invested with the power of making at any time adjustments on account of excess or short credits of interest to a depositor's account, by deduction from, or addition to, the balance standing at the credit of such depositor, as the case may be. But such adjustments are not to be carried back beyond six preceding account years.

20. Transfer of Accounts.—(1) Subject to the provision of this rule, a depositor may have his account transferred, free of charge, to any post office that transacts Indian Post Office Defence Savings Bank business. If he should wish to transfer his account, he must present his pass-book personally, or send it to the post office and must in either case make a written application for transfer. He must at the same time, forward one, two or three, specimens of his signature according as post office to which the account is to be transferred is a head, sub, or branch office. The pass-book will be returned to the depositor (but see sub-rule 5 below), who should present it as soon as possible at the post office to which his account has been transferred.

(2) Accounts cannot be transferred from one head post office to another between the 16th and 31st March both days inclusive.

(3) An account cannot be transferred after the death of the depositor.

(4) When an application for the transfer of an account of a female depositor is made by her authorised agent or of an account opened on behalf of a minor by the person who opened it, the agent or the person who opened the account, as the case may be, must certify as follows above his signature on the application for transfer:—"Certified that the depositor is on this day alive and sane".

(5) The pass-book of a depositor in a sub or branch post office who wishes to transfer his account will first be sent to the head post office to which the sub or branch office is subordinate, to have the orders authorising the transfer entered in the book.

21. Procedure to be followed in cases of succession.—(1) If a depositor should die leaving a balance in cash not exceeding three thousand rupees, and if probate of his will, or letters of administration of his estate, or a certificate granted under the Indian Succession Act, 1925, be not produced to the Postmaster-General within three months of the death of the said depositor, the Postmaster-General may pay the said sum of money to any person appearing to him to be entitled to receive it or to administer the estate of the deceased.

(2) The Head Postmaster of the office on the books of which the account of deceased depositor stands may exercise the powers vested in the Postmaster-General under sub-rule (1), on the same conditions in the cases in which the balance at credit of a deceased depositor is not in excess of one hundred rupees.

(3) Balances of a deceased depositor in excess of Rs. 3,000 may only be paid on production of probate, letters of administration, or a certificate under the Indian Succession Act, 1925. The Director-General has, however, discretionery power to dispense with such evidence if he is of opinion that to require it would cause hardship, and that to dispense with it would involve no appreciable risk.

22. If any depositor becomes insane or otherwise incapable of managing his affairs, and if such insanity or incapacity be proved to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General, then the Postmaster-General may, permit withdrawal of the amount in deposit by any proper person twelve months after the date on which the Governor-General notifies the war to have terminated, as provided in Rule 9. Where a committee or manager has been duly appointed to administer the depositor's estate, nothing in this rule authorises payments to any person other than such committee or manager.

23. Closing of Accounts.—Depositors may withdraw the amount at their credit twelve months after the date on which the Governor-General declares the war to have terminated. In the case of minor's accounts who are still minors on that date, a certificate to the effect that the minor has not yet attained majority, and is sane and alive on the date of withdrawal, will have to be recorded by the person withdrawing the money. Such withdrawal from a minor's account can only be made by the father of the minor or if he be dead by his mother. In cases where both parents of the minor are dead, money can be withdrawn by his guardian on producing proof of guardianship to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General, and on signing the certificate mentioned above. If on the date of withdrawal the minor has attained majority under the Indian Majority Act, 1875, the amount will be paid only on his signature and the discharge of the person depositing the money will not be valid or necessary.

24. Government may by notification in the official Gazette close the accounts with effect from the date on which the depositors are entitled to effect withdrawals under rule 23, or any subsequent date.

25. Power of Government to alter Rules. The Central Government reserves the right to alter or add to these rules at any time.

PART VI

Bills introduced in the Council of State and Legislative Assembly; Reports of Select Committees presented to the Council and Assembly; and Bills published under Rule 18 of the Indian Legislative Rules.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill* was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 1st April, 1941:—

L. A. BILL No. 22 OF 1941.

A Bill to regulate the extent to which railway property shall be liable to taxation imposed by an authority within a Province.

WHEREAS it is expedient to regulate the extent to which property vested in His Majesty for the purposes of the Central Government, being property of a railway, shall be liable to taxation imposed by an authority within a Province; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title and extent.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Railways (Local Authorities' Taxation) Act, 1941.

(2) It extends to the whole of British India.

Definition.

2. In this Act,—

(a) "local authority" means a local authority as defined in the General Clauses Act, 1897, and includes any authority legally entitled to or entrusted with the control or management of any fund for the maintenance of watchmen or for the conservancy of a river; X of 1897.

(b) "railway administration" has the meaning assigned to the expression in clause (6) of section 3 of the Indian Railways Act, 1890. IX of 1890.

Liability of railways to taxation by local authorities.

3. (1) In respect of property vested in His Majesty for the purposes of the Central Government, being property of a railway, a railway administration shall be liable to pay any tax in aid of the funds of any local authority, if and to such extent as the Central Government, by notification in the official Gazette, declares it to be so liable.

*The Governor General has been pleased to give the sanction required by sub-section (2) of section 67 of the Government of India Act, as saved from repeal by paragraph 12 of the Government of India (Commencement and Transitory Provisions) Order, 1936, to the introduction in the Legislative Assembly of this Bill.

(2) A notification issued under sub-section (1) may modify any tax in its application to any railway administration and in particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power may reduce the rate of the tax in respect of all or any part of the property of the railway administration, or may define the manner in which the tax shall be assessed on any such property or may exempt any particular property or class of property or any specified area from the whole or any portion of the tax.

(3) While a notification under sub-section (1) is in force, the railway administration shall be liable to pay to the local authority either the tax mentioned in the notification or in lieu thereof such sum, if any, as an officer appointed in this behalf by the Central Government may, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, from time to time determine to be fair and reasonable.

Modification of existing liability to taxation.

4. The Central Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, revoke or vary any notification issued under clause (1) of section 135 of the Indian Railways Act, 1890; and where a notification is so revoked any liability arising out of the notification to pay any tax to any local authority shall cease, and where a notification is so varied the liability arising out of the notification shall be varied accordingly. IX of 1890.

Saving.

5. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as debarring any railway administration administering a railway from entering into a contract with any local authority for the supply of water or light or for the scavenging of railway premises, or for any other service which the local authority may be rendering or be prepared to render within any part of the local area under its control.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Section 135 of the Indian Railways Act, 1890, provided that no railway property could be subjected to a tax by a local body, unless the Governor General in Council had by notification declared the railway administration concerned to be liable to pay the tax. The Governor General in Council could at any time revoke or vary such a notification. Although the section is still in force, it can no longer be applied to State-owned railways because of the provisions of section 154 of the Government of India Act, 1935. This exempts State-owned railway property from provincial or local taxation except in so far as legislation may otherwise provide, but all the taxes payable by virtue of notifications issued under the Indian Railways Act before 1st April 1937 continue to be payable until legislation otherwise provides. The position thus is that until such a law is enacted, no new tax can be imposed in respect of such property, nor can any existing notification in respect of such property be varied or revoked.

2. A Bill to restore the position which existed prior to 1st April 1937 was introduced in the Legislative Assembly in 1938, but a motion for its circulation was rejected. Fears were expressed that the Bill would confer an unreasonable advantage on railways at the expense of Provincial Governments and local bodies, and objections were also based on the form which the Bill took. Actually, the rejection of the Bill has resulted in railways benefiting at the expense of taxing authorities, and representations have been made to the Government of India by Provincial Governments in favour of the enactment of legislation.

3. Moreover, the Government of India have been advised that the proviso to section 154 of the Government of India Act, 1935, does not include property acquired by Government after the 31st March 1937 and is confined to Crown property which was subject to taxation on that date. Local authorities have thus been deprived of revenue from taxation in respect of the property of several railway administrations recently purchased by Government and, in the absence of legislation, are likely to lose further revenue in the future.

4. It is therefore desirable to restore the position that existed prior to the 1st April 1937 by enabling the Central Government to issue, vary or revoke notifications regarding the liability to taxation by local bodies of all State-owned railways whether acquired before or after that date. The Bill in its substantial effect is similar to the Bill of 1938, but it has been modified in form to meet objections that were taken to that measure.

(3) These rules shall have effect and shall be deemed always to have had effect as if they had been made on the 22nd April 1939.

2. Definitions.—For the purpose of these rules—

(1) "Children" means legitimate children who, if females, are unmarried and under the age of 21 or if males, are under the age of 17, and includes step-children residing with and wholly dependent upon an officer;

(a) two return passages for the officer, the first after not less than 7 years' service in the Police Department and the second after an interval of not less than 7 years subsequent to the first; provided that officers who had more than 10 years' service in the police force on the 1st April 1939 shall be entitled to one return passage instead of two;

SECOND SCHEDULE.

[See rule 15 (1) and the First Schedule.]

CONDITIONS.

The Governor General shall be under no liability under any policy of insurance to which these conditions apply (hereinafter referred to as "the policy") if and in so far as the Insured is not entitled to be insured for the sum thereby insured in respect of the property insured under the Ordinance.

2. If at the time of the happening of any loss or damage the total value of the property insured shall exceed the sum insured under the policy, the Insured shall be considered as being his own insurer for the excess and shall bear a rateable share of the loss accordingly.

3. If at the time of the happening of any loss or damage there be any other insurance effected by or on behalf of the Insured covering any of the property suffering that loss or damage, the liability of the Governor General under the policy shall be limited to its rateable proportion of such loss or damage.

4. On the happening of any loss or damage the Insured shall forthwith give notice thereof in writing to the Agent, and shall within ten days after such loss or damage, or such further time as the Agent may in writing allow, at his own expense deliver to the Agent a claim in writing containing as particular an account as may be reasonably practicable of the several articles or portions of property suffering that loss or damage and of the amount of such loss or damage, having regard to their value at the time of the loss or damage, together with details of any other insurances on the property insured. The Insured shall also give to the Agent all such proofs and information with respect to the claim as may reasonably be required, together with (if demanded) a declaration, verified by an affidavit, of the truth of the claim and of any matters connected therewith. No claim under the policy shall be payable unless the terms of this condition have been complied with.

5. If the claim be in any respect fraudulent, or if any fraudulent means or devices be used by the Insured or anyone acting on his behalf to obtain any benefit under this policy, or if any loss or damage be occasioned by the wilful act or with the connivance of the Insured, all benefits under the policy shall be forfeited.

6. If in his application for the insurance effected by the policy, the Insured shall have intentionally made a material under-statement of the value of the property insured all benefits under the policy shall be forfeited.

7. If the Governor General elects to reinstate or replace any property Insured, the Insured shall at his own expense produce and give to the Governor General all such plans, documents, books and information as the Governor General may reasonably require. The Governor General shall not be bound to reinstate exactly or completely but only as circumstances permit and in reasonably sufficient manner and shall not in any case be bound to expend in respect of the property insured more than the sum insured thereon.

8. On the happening of any loss or damage in respect of which a claim is or may be made under the policy, the Agent and every person authorised by the Agent may, without thereby incurring any liability, and without diminishing the right of the Governor General to rely upon any conditions of the policy, enter, take or keep possession of the building or premises where the loss or damage has happened, and may take possession of or require to be delivered to them any of the property insured, and may keep possession of and deal with such property for all reasonable purposes and in any reasonable manner. This condition shall be evidence of the leave and licence of the Insured to the Governor General so to do. If the Insured or any one acting on his behalf shall not comply with the requirements of the Governor General, or shall hinder or obstruct the Governor General or any person acting on his behalf in doing any of the abovementioned acts, then all benefit under this policy shall be forfeited. The Insured shall not in any case be entitled to abandon any property to the Governor General whether taken possession of by the Governor General or not.

9. The premium paid in respect of the policy or any part of such premium shall not in any event be returnable, except as provided in Section 11 of the Ordinance.

10. The policy shall not be assignable.

11. The following condition may be included in the policy at the request of the Insured :—

"It is hereby agreed and declared that..... .....being the persons carrying on the business of banking shall, to the extent of their interest in the property insured, be entitled jointly with the Insured to the rights hereby granted to the Insured, but not so as to grant to them any further or greater rights than those of the Insured under this policy".

12. The liability of the Governor General under the policy shall not exceed in the aggregate the sum thereby insured, and accordingly after the happening of any loss or damage the said sum shall be deemed to be reduced by the amount of that loss or damage.

WAR RISKS (GOODS) INSURANCE ORDINANCE, 1940.

Instructions.

1. The Government of India have put into operation as from the 1st October 1940 the War Risks (Goods) Insurance Scheme whereby the Government undertake to insure certain Goods on land or on inland waters in British India against War Risks.

2. GOODS INSURABLE: The Ordinance defines the Goods to which the scheme applies; these includes Goods (with certain exceptions) which are held for sale by persons carrying on business as sellers of goods, such as manufacturers, wholesale distributors, and retailers, including the raw materials from which goods are manufactured and goods in process of manufacture.

3. GOODS NOT INSURABLE: A list of Goods which cannot be insured under the scheme has been published in the Gazette. It includes growing crops, plants and trees; livestock; coal and coke; mineral oils; iron, manganese and other ores; iron and steel scrap; various classes of manufactured iron and steel; cement and lime; concrete products; various classes of manufactured stone; bricks, tiles and slates; gold, silver and other precious metals; jewellery and precious and semi-precious stones; postage stamps; and objects of art or craftsmanship not less than 100 years old. Goods of any description which are not for sale are excluded by the Ordinance.

THE ORDINANCE PRESCRIBES HEAVY FINES FOR CONTRAVENTION.

6. HOW TO INSURE: The Application form overleaf should be completed and forwarded with a remittance for the premium to a Government Agent.

7. GOVERNMENT AGENTS: The Government of India have appointed certain Insurance Companies transacting Fire, Marine or Accident Insurance to act as Government Agents and issue policies under the scheme. the 30th June; and those issued on or after the 1st July will expire on the 30th September. No policy will be issued to expire on any intermediate date.

(b) an order (hereafter in this rule referred to as a "winding up order") requiring the business to be wound up; and the making of a restriction order as respects any business shall not prejudice the power of the Central Government, if it thinks it expedient so to do, at any subsequent date to make a winding up order as respects that business.

(3) Where an order under sub-rule (2) is made as respects any business, the Central Government may, by that or a subsequent order, appoint a Supervisor to control and supervise the carrying out of the order, and, in the case of a winding up order, to conduct the winding up of the business and may confer on the Supervisor any such powers in relation to the business as are exercisable by a liquidator in the voluntary winding up of a company in relation to the company (including power in the name of the person carrying on the business or in his own name, and by deed or otherwise, to convey or transfer any property, and power to apply to the court to determine any question arising in the carrying out of the order), and may by the order confer on the Supervisor such other powers as the Central Government thinks necessary or convenient for the purpose of giving full effect to the order.

(a) of the value of those assets;

(b) of the amount of any liabilities of the business to creditors, whether secured or unsecured, who are enemies;

(c) of the amount of the claims of persons who are enemies to participate, otherwise than as creditors of the business, in any distribution of assets of the business made while an order under sub-rule (2) is in force as respects the business.

and, where such an estimate is made, the said liabilities and claims shall, for the purposes of this rule, be deemed to have been satisfied out of the said assets of the business in enemy territory, or to have been satisfied thereout so far as those assets will go, and only the balance (if any) shall rank for satisfaction out of the other assets of the business.

(6) Where an estimate has been prepared under sub-rule (5), a certificate of the Supervisor as to the value or amount of any assets, claims or liabilities to which the estimate relates shall be conclusive for the purpose of determining the amount of the assets of the business available for discharging the other liabilities of the business and for distribution amongst other persons claiming to be interested in the business:

Provided that nothing in this sub-rule shall affect the rights of creditors of, and other persons interested in, the business against the assets of the business in enemy territory.

(7) The Central Government may, on an application made by a Supervisor appointed under this rule, after considering the application and any objections which may be made by any person who appears to the Central Government to be interested, by order grant the Supervisor a release, and an order of the Central Government under this sub-rule shall discharge the Supervisor from all liability in respect of any act done or default made by him in the exercise and performance of his powers and duties as Supervisor, but any such order may be revoked by the Central Government on proof that it was obtained by fraud or by suppression or concealment of any material fact.

(8) Where an order under sub-rule (2) has been made as respects a business carried on by any individuals or by a company, no insolvency petition against the individuals, or petition for the winding up of the company, shall be presented, or resolution for the winding up of the company passed, or steps for the enforcement of the rights of any creditors of the individuals or company taken, without the consent of the Central Government, but where the business is carried on by a company, the Central Government may present a petition for the winding up of the company by the court, and the making of an order under sub-rule (2) shall be a ground on which the company may be wound up by the court.

(9) Where an order is made under this rule appointing a Supervisor, for any business, any remuneration of, and any costs, charges and expenses incurred by, the Supervisor, and any other costs, charges and expenses incurred in connection with the control and supervision of the carrying out of the order, shall, to such amount as may be certified by the Central Government, be defrayed out of the assets of the business, and as from the date of the certificate, be charged on those assets in priority to any other charges thereon.

(10) If any person contravenes the provisions of any order made under sub-rule (2), he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to five years or with fine or both."

Acts of the Bengal Legislature.

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL.

Legislative Department.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 2T.L.—10th May, 1941.—The following Act of the Bengal Legislature, having been assented to in His Majesty's name by the Governor, is hereby published for general information.

The Bengal Local Self-Government (Amendment) Act, 1941.

in this Chapter as the Judge), may hold such inquiry in accordance with the procedure prescribed by rules made by the Provincial Government under section 138 as he deems necessary.

(2) Where a petition has been transferred by the District Judge to a subordinate judicial officer under the provisions of sub-section (1) for disposal, the District Judge may at any time for reasons to be recorded in writing withdraw such petition to his own file and dispose of it himself, or may re-transfer it to another such subordinate judicial officer for disposal.

(3) For the purposes of the said inquiry the Judge may summon and enforce the attendance of witnesses and compel them to produce documents or articles in their possession or power and to give evidence as if he were a Civil Court, and may also direct by whom the whole or any part of the costs of such inquiry shall be paid, and such costs shall be recoverable as if they had been awarded in a suit under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908. Act V of 1908.

(4) The Judge may, at any stage of the proceedings, require the petitioner to deposit in Court a further sum as the costs incurred or likely to be incurred by any respondent, or to give security, or further security for the payment of the same, and if, within the time fixed by him, or within such further time as he may allow, such costs are not deposited or such further security is not furnished, as the case may be, may dismiss the petition.

Grounds for declaring election void.

18D. (1) If the Judge after holding an inquiry under section 18C is satisfied that—

(a) the election of a returned candidate has been procured or induced, or the result of the election has been materially affected, by a corrupt practice, or

(b) any corrupt practice specified in Part I of the Fourth Schedule has been committed, or

(c) the election has not been a free election by reason of the general employment of bribery or undue influence as defined in Chapter IXA of the Indian Penal Code, or by reason of any form of general intimidation, including any form of social boycott, or Act XLV of 1860.

(d) the result of the election has been materially affected by any non-compliance with the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder or by any mistake in the use of any form prescribed for an election or by any error, irregularity or informality on the part of any officer charged with or carrying out any duty under this Act or rules made thereunder, or he shall declare the election of such candidate to be void.

(e) the result of the election has been materially affected by the improper acceptance or refusal of candidate's nomination,

(2) If, after any such inquiry, the Judge is of opinion that a returned candidate has been guilty by an agent (other than his election agent) or any other person of any corrupt practice specified in Part I of the Fourth Schedule which does not amount to any form of bribery other than treating as hereinafter explained or to the procuring or abetment of personation, and if the Judge is also of opinion that the candidate has satisfied him that—

(a) no corrupt practice was committed at such election by the candidate or his election agent and the corrupt practices which were found by the Judge

The Bengal Local Self-Government (Amendment) Act, 1941.

(Section 3.)

to have been committed were of a trivial, unimportant and limited character and were committed contrary to the orders and without the sanction or connivance of such candidate or his election agent, and

(b) in all other respects the election was free from any corrupt practice on the part of such candidate or any of his agents, then, the Judge may find that the election of such candidate is not void.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this sub-section "treating" means the incurring in whole or in part by any person of the expense of giving or providing any food, drink, entertainment or provision to any person with the object, directly or indirectly, of inducing him or any other person to vote or refrain from voting or as a reward for having voted or refrained from voting.

Scrutiny of votes and declaration in other cases.

18E. If there is any dispute as to the validity of an election by reason of erroneous or wrongful scrutiny and counting of votes given to a candidate and the election is called in question under sub-section (1) of section 18B on that ground, the Judge shall after a scrutiny and computation of the votes recorded in favour of each candidate declare the candidate who is found to have the greatest number of valid votes in his favour to have been duly elected :

Provided that for the purpose of such computation no vote shall be reckoned as valid if it is found by the Judge that any corrupt practice was committed by any person known or unknown in giving or obtaining it.

Dismissal of petition.

18F. If the Judge after holding an inquiry under section 18C is satisfied that no ground exists for declaring the election to be void in the manner provided in sub-section (1) of section 18D or modifying it in the manner provided in section 18E, he shall dismiss the petition.

Decision of the Judge to be final.

18G. The decision or order of the Judge under section 18D, 18E or 18F shall be final.

Saving of acts done by a member before his election is set aside and of previous proceedings of the local authority.

18H. Where a candidate, who has been elected to be a member of a District Board or a Local Board, is declared by the Judge not to have been duly elected, acts done by him in execution of the duties of his office before the time when the decision is certified to the District Board or the Local Board concerned shall not be invalidated by reason of that declaration and any previous proceedings of the said local authority of which such candidate was a member shall not be deemed to be affected thereby in any respect.

Bar to interference by Courts in election matters

18I. No election of a member of a District Board or a Local Board shall be called in question in any Court except under the procedure provided by this Act and no order passed in any proceeding under sections 18B to 18G (both inclusive) shall be called in question in any Court and no Court shall grant an injunction—

(a) to postpone an election of a member of a District Board or a Local Board, or

(b) to prohibit any person declared to have been duly elected under this Act from taking part in the proceedings of a District Board or a Local Board of which he has been elected a member, or

The Bengal Criminal Law (Industrial Areas) Amendment Bill, 1941.

(Clause 3.)

(2) If any person charged under sub-section (1) in respect of anything declares that he received such thing from some other person, or that he was employed as a carrier, agent or servant to convey such thing for some other person, the Magistrate, after such further inquiry (if any) as he may deem necessary, may summon such other person, and any former or pretended purchaser or other person through whose possession such thing is alleged to have passed, to appear before him, and may examine such person and any witnesses who are produced to testify to such receipt, employment or possession ; and, if it appears to such Magistrate that any such person had possession of such thing and had reasonable cause to believe that it was stolen or fraudulently obtained, the Magistrate may punish him with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, or with imprisonment, for a term which may extend to three months.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Thefts of articles from railway workshops and stores and from mill and industrial areas are of frequent occurrence and it is always difficult to bring the offenders to book owing to the difficulty of satisfactory identification of the articles as required by law. The question of dealing with the criminals has been examined by the Railway Administrations as also by the Blandy-Gordon Committee and by Government and the view has been held that the problem can be effectively met only by special legislation on the lines of sections 32 and 54A of the Calcutta Police Act, 1866, which while applying to the whole of Bengal should, at the outset, be extended to such individual areas as Government may, from time to time, notify to that effect. For the present, it is proposed to make the Bill applicable to the railway workshops at Kharagpur, Kanchrapara and Chittagong.

Alter the constitution of the Board of Trustees of the Port of Madras.

WHEREAS it is expedient to alter the constitution of the Board of Trustees of the Port of Madras and for this purpose to amend the Madras Port Trust Act, 1905, in the manner hereinafter appearing; Mad. Act II of 1905.

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Madras Port Trust (Amendment) Act, 1941.

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, appoint.

Substitution of new sections for sections 7 and 8, Madras Act II of 1905.

2. For sections 7 and 8 of the Madras Port Trust Act, 1905 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), the following sections shall be substituted, namely: — Mad. Act II of 1905.

Constitution of the Board.

"7. The Board shall consist of fifteen Trustees, including the Chairman:

Provided that, if the Chairman is absent on leave for more than a fortnight and if another Chairman is appointed to act for him, the absent Chairman shall cease to be a Trustee during the continuance of the acting appointment, but shall again become a Trustee on his return to duty.

Appointment of Trustees.

8. (1) The Chairman shall be appointed by the Central Government. Of the remaining Trustees, four, of whom one shall be chosen to represent labour interests, shall be appointed by the Central Government, one shall be appointed by the Provincial Government, four shall be elected by the members for the time being of the Madras Chamber of Commerce, three by the members for the time being of the Southern India Chamber of Commerce, one by the members for the time being of the Southern India Skin and Hide Merchants' Association, and one by the Corporation of Madras.

(2) The Chairman of the Chamber or Association concerned in making an election under sub-section (1) and the Commissioner of the Corporation of Madras shall report to the Central Government the name of each person elected as a Trustee."

Amendment of section 13, Madras Act II of 1905.

3. In section 13 of the said Act, after the word "concerned" the words "or by the Corporation of Madras" shall be inserted, and for the words "the Central Government" the words "the authority by which he was appointed" shall be substituted.

Transition from existing constitution of Board of Trustees.

4. The appointments and elections referred to in section 8 of the said Act as amended by this Act, and the publication referred to in section 9 of the said Act may be made at any time after the passing of this Act and before this Act comes into force, but the Trustees so appointed and elected shall not assume office until this Act comes into force, and on the coming into force of this Act the term of office of the Trustees then holding office shall expire.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The constitution of the Board of Trustees of the Port of Madras was last revised in 1923. Changes in circumstances since that date justify a further revision.

2. Six seats are at present assigned to European commercial interests and four to Indian commercial interests. Information now available suggests that Europeans and Indians share almost equally in the traffic of the port ; it is therefore proposed to assign four seats to the Madras Chamber of Commerce, three to the Southern India Chamber of Commerce and one to the Southern India Skin and Hide Merchants' Association. Although it is ordinarily desirable to avoid the representation of specific branches of commerce, the representative of the last Association is retained on account of its special position. One elected seat has been assigned to the Madras Corporation, and it is proposed that one seat should be reserved for a representative of labour, in accordance with a recommendation made by the Royal Commission on Labour.

3. Of the remaining seats, it is proposed that one should be filled by a nominee of the Government of Madras, who are at present unrepresented. The others include the Chairman and will permit of representation of railway interests and of the appointment of the Collector of Customs.
